

NOTICE to Voter

June 25, 2024, Election

If you are an active registered Democratic voter, you will receive your party ballot and, on that ballot, you will have the Congressional District 4 race and the question on filling the Congressional District 4 Vacancy.

If you are an active registered Republican voter, you will receive your party ballot and on that party ballot you will have your local contests, and the Congressional District 4 Vacancy Election. Vote in all categories.

If you are an active unaffiliated voter, you will receive a ballot from the Democratic Party and the Republican Party. On each of those ballots will be the state and local contests and the Congressional District 4 Vacancy Election. Vote all categories and return only one ballot to the Phillips County Clerk's office either by mail, drop off location or drop box. Locations and times are listed below.

If you are an active minor party voter, you will receive a ballot in the mail that will have the Congressional District 4 Vacancy Election.
